WANTED FOR BURGLARY OF A HABITATION UP TO $5,000 REWARD

FOR INFORMATION LEADING TO THE CHARGING AND/OR ARREST OF THE SUSPECT IN THIS CASE

Crime Stoppers and the Houston Police Department's Burglary and Theft Division need the public's assistance identifying the suspect responsible for a Burglary of a Habitation.

On Wednesday, February 5, 2020, between 2:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m., an unknown black male suspect burglarized a residence located in the 2100 block of Yale Street in Houston, Texas. Video surveillance captured the suspect entering the victim's building empty handed. A few minutes later, the suspect was recorded leaving with the victim's safe inside of a sewing machine bag. The suspect also stole other items from the victim's bedroom, which included jewelry. The suspect fled in a white utility van (which has since been located). Investigators uncovered video footage of the suspect driving a black Cadillac Escalade a few days before the crime.

Suspect: Black male, muscular build, 5'09" to 6'00", 180 - 210 lbs., with a goatee.

Crime Stoppers may pay up to $5,000 for information leading to the identification, charging and/or arrest of the suspect in this case. Information may be reported by calling 713-222-TIPS (8477), submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org or through the Crime Stoppers mobile app. Only tips and calls DIRECTLY TO Crime Stoppers are anonymous and eligible for a cash reward.
