WANTED FOR BURGLARY OF A BUILDING UP TO $5,000 REWARD

FOR INFORMATION LEADING TO THE CHARGING AND/OR ARREST OF THE SUSPECTS IN THIS CASE

Crime Stoppers and the Houston Police Department's Burglary and Theft Division need the public's assistance identifying the suspects responsible for a Burglary of a Building.

On Saturday, February 22, 2020, at approximately 8:30 p.m., unknown suspects burglarized a building located in the 7900 block of the Northcourt Road in Houston, Texas. Video surveillance captured the suspects making entry to the building. During the incident, the suspects stole boxes of clothing product valued at approximately $30,000. The suspects loaded the stolen product into a dark colored S.U.V. (possibly a GMC Yukon) and fled in an unknown direction of travel.

On Sunday, February 23, 2020, at approximately 3:40 a.m. (a few hours after the first burglary), unknown suspects burglarized the building again. The suspects stole approximately $30,000 of the same clothing product. The suspects loaded the stolen product into a black truck (possibly a Ford F-150) that was pulling a trailer, and fled in an unknown direction of travel.

Crime Stoppers may pay up to $5,000 for information leading to the identification, charging and/or arrest of the suspects in this case. Information may be reported by calling 713-222-TIPS (8477), submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org or through the Crime Stoppers mobile app. Only tips and calls DIRECTLY TO Crime Stoppers are anonymous and eligible for a cash reward.
