WHO KILLED PATRICIA HUMPHREYS?

UP TO $10,000 REWARD

FOR INFORMATION LEADING TO THE CHARGING AND/OR ARREST OF THE SUSPECT(S) IN THIS CASE

Crime Stoppers and the Houston Police Department's Homicide Division need the public's assistance identifying the suspect(s) responsible for a Murder.

On Thursday, June 26, 1975, fifteen-year-old Patricia Humphreys went missing from a Drive-Inn located in the 9500 block of Clay Road in Houston, Texas. The victim was with a group of people and walked to the concession stand. The group began to walk back to their cars, but the victim had to return to use the restroom. Time passed and Patricia did not return, sparking a massive search. Sadly, on November 30, 1975 the skeletal remains of the victim were located in the 5600 block of Hooper Road.

The family of Patricia Humphreys is requesting the community's help with identifying the suspect(s) responsible for her murder.

Crime Stoppers may pay up to $10,000 for information leading to the identification, charging and/or arrest of the suspect(s) in this case. Information may be reported by calling 713-222-TIPS (8477), submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org or through the Crime Stoppers mobile app. Only tips and calls DIRECTLY TO Crime Stoppers are anonymous and eligible for a cash reward.
